

Curriculum Vitae

GIUSEPPE CASALE, PhD

Giuseppe Casale is Deputy Director of the International Training Centre of the International Labour Organization (Turin) and Director of the Turin School of Development (Turin). Former Director of the Labour Administration, Labour Inspection and OSH Branch (LABADMIN/OSH) at the ILO, Geneva; former Director of the Labour Administration and Inspection Programme at the ILO, Geneva; former Chief of the Social Dialogue, Labour Legislation and Labour Administration Branch, ILO, Geneva.

He has studied law, political science, international economics and history in Italy and the USA. He holds a PhD, C.Phil and M.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), an M.A. from the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies, The Johns Hopkins University (Washington D.C.) and a Master in Political Science from the Cesare Alfieri of the University of Florence (Italy).

Since September 2012, he is the Secretary General of the International Society for Labour and Social Security Law (ISLSSL), Geneva. Former Secretary General of the International Industrial Relations Association (IIRA, now ILERA), Geneva.

He is member of several international and European academic and international associations.

He lectures in several Italian and European universities on global employment issues, international labour law, industrial relations, labour administration, labour inspection and international political, economic and social institutions.

He is editorial board member of several academic journals and author of more than 100 publications. (The list of publications is available on request)

May 2020